

Jane Collie

As a Consultant to businesses in the UK, Australia and the Middle East, Jane works with her clients in a variety of capacities as an Executive Coach, Facilitator, Trainer and Group Coach. Her strengths are clear - a pragmatic approach to her consulting, clear communication, strong interpersonal skills and a willingness to push for clarity and awareness for her clients.

Jane is recognised as a professional partner to her clients and works with them across 3 pillars Recognition – Action – Results

She has worked with a variety of organisations from large multi-nationals to small business owners across most industries. Prior to her becoming a full time coach she held senior management positions and she also owned and managed a Master Franchise and built a network of franchisees across Australia. Jane applies her experience in business ownership and management to her coaching providing an understanding of the challenges facing leaders today.

She has been involved in large business transformation projects for clients including Rio Tinto, Hewlett Packard, Oracle, EGA, Maersk Oil, Shell, Zurich Insurance, Qantas, Nestle, Australia Post, Healthscope, University of Melbourne, RMIT and ANZ Bank. With over 20 years' experience she has successfully coached senior managers and their teams in ambiguous times, in both change and resilience, as well supporting individuals in their own professional development to ensure their career is focussed and planned and achievable.

With an empathetic approach Jane brings to her coaching both the ability to challenge her clients to think 'outside the box' whilst setting clear objectives and outcomes to enhance performance and define long term goals.

Jane's key strengths are in communication and building relationships. Through a direct and open approach she challenges her clients to exceed their own expectations and establish their future professional and personal growth.

Recognised as an accomplished group coach Jane has facilitated workshops ranging from 5 to 50+ participants. She brings an open and communicative approach to her workshops by engaging participants and providing the forum for robust and frank discussions around predetermined company objectives and outcomes.

She lives her belief that, as individuals we are all surrounded by exciting opportunities and by embracing change, life becomes a road map to explore.
